

esprit orchestra 98.99

Alex Pauk music director and conductor

all new (world premieres)

Tuesday March 9, 1999

8:00 p.m./7:00 p.m. pre-concert talk

Jane Mallett Theatre, St. Lawrence Centre

guest artist

ERICA GOODMAN, harp

composers

CHRIS PAUL HARMAN (Canada)

Axle

1999

PAUL DOLDEN (Canada)

Resonant Twilight

for orchestra and tape

1999

ALEX PAUK (Canada)

Concerto, for harp and orchestra

1999

KLAUS HINRICH STAHLER (Germany)

May they come, may they disembark,

may they stay and rest awhile in peace

1994

The premiere of Mr. Stahmer's work is sponsored by the Franz Gothe Stiftung, München, Germany

about the programme

Esprit's final concert of the season includes all new pieces. Four individual styles reflect the many streams of thought flowing through Canadian and German contemporary orchestral music.

pre-concert talk

Please join us in the comfort of the Jane Mallett Theatre before the concert to hear the composers discuss their music.

call or visit the
St. Lawrence Centre box office,
27 Front St. E.
(416) 366-7723

TICKETS: $26; $12.50 student/senior

esprit orchestra 98.99

Alex Pauk music director and conductor

Esprit Orchestra, Suite 603 - 174 Spadina Avenue
Toronto, ON M5T 2C2

all new (world premieres)

Tuesday March 9, 1999

esprit gratefully acknowledges the following for their support of the 98.99 season:

THE CANADA COUNCIL FOR THE ARTS
SINCE 1957

LE CONSEIL DES ARTS
DU CANADA
DEPUIS 1957

City of Toronto through the Toronto Arts Council

The McLean
Foundation

Borden & Elliot
ADMINISTRATORS & SOLICITORS IN TRUST & TRADE MARK AGENTS

M. Joan Chalmers,
C.C., O. Ont.

The Julie-Jiggs
Foundation

The SOCAN Foundation